It was a pleasure to meet with you during my recent visit [redacted]. I much appreciated our good discussions as well as the very warm hospitality of both you and your associates. I place a very high value on the good relations between our countries and on the continuation of the close relationship and spirit of cooperation between our representatives.

I would like to thank you for the magnificent statue which you presented to me during the very enjoyable lunch at your home. It will serve as a reminder of my extremely pleasant visit to [redacted]
